

Our Councillors: The Parish Council is now back to its full complement of 8 Councillors. We are pleased to re-welcome Grish Lohani who has an experience background in local and national highways. Our other Councillors June Perrins, Ann Peal, Sam Jordan, John Berry, Stu Tucker, Zac Hussain and Elysabeth Sheppard all have individual roles within the Council that help support the development and running of our village.

Village Design Statement: Slides from the Public Meeting on Monday 23rd March, along with the updated draft village design statement can be found on our website.

South Wonston Pickleballers: Following the success of last year's pickleball taster sessions, we'll now be starting regular sessions at the South Wonston tennis court. Weather allowing, sessions will be every Wednesday and Sunday from 2:00pm to 3:30pm throughout the spring & summer. Beginners very welcome and playing equipment is provided. It's great fun, very sociable and highly addictive, come along and have a go.

'Voice' Village Newsletter: The first edition of the electronic newsletter has been emailed to all residents who have signed up. If you wish to receive it, please go to our website and complete the pop-up box.

Solar Panels: Cllr Sheppard is heading the project to have solar panels installed onto the Pavilion.

Litter Picking: Rapid Relief Team UK charity collected litter from the entrance of South Wonston village to the roundabout joining the A34 south, Adrian and Andrea Priddle cleared litter along the Alresford Drove and other residents Christmas Hill to the start of Sutton Scotney. Thank you to everyone who helped!

Grant: The scheme is open to all local charities and clubs who have a village connection. Please contact us for more details.

Air Quality Meter: Data has now been collected for the last four months and shows that we continue to have good, clean air.

Community Cafe: Runs every Monday from 12.30pm to 2.30pm. This is free and open to all residents so come along and meet other residents from the village.

Parish Council Meetings: The next meeting will be held on Monday 13th April @7.30pm at the Pavilion.
