INTRODUCTION

These Standing Orders, based on the National Association of Local Councils' (NALC) Model Standing Orders 2018, have been reviewed and updated in May 2020, March 2021, May 2022 and, in May 2023, have been reviewed, revised and adapted to suit the needs of South Wonston Parish Council.

HOW TO USE STANDING ORDERS

Standing Orders are the written rules of a local council. Standing Orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A council may also use Standing orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The Standing Orders of a council are not the same as the policies of a council but standing orders may refer to them.

Local councils operate within a wide statutory framework. Standing Orders incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which councils are subject. It is not possible for Standing Orders to contain or reference all the statutory or legal requirements which apply to local councils. For example, it is not practical for Standing Orders to document all obligations under data protection legislation. The statutory requirements to which a council is subject apply whether or not they are incorporated in a council's Standing Orders.

Standing Orders do not include Financial Regulations. Financial Regulations are Standing Orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The Financial Regulations, as opposed to the Standing Orders of a council, include most of the requirements relevant to the council's Responsible Financial Officer.

DRAFTING NOTES

It is NALC's view that all model Standing Orders will generally be suitable for councils and it is recommended that councils adopt them without changing them or their meaning. However, no council faces exactly similar conditions and, since 2018, both the working environment and the political landscape have undergone considerable change. Accordingly, South Wonston Parish Council's Standing Orders have been adjusted to reflect those changes in order for it to operate effectively and in accordance with current legislation. Brexit, notably, has required alterations to the Standing Orders text.

For convenience, the word "councillor" is used in Standing Orders and, unless the context suggests otherwise, includes a non-councillor with or without the right to vote at meetings.

A model standing order that includes brackets like this '()' requires information to be inserted by a council. This was replaced in Red, Bold and Italic. Examples of this will be found in this document. Other additions/revisions will be seen in Red or Black Bold.

1. RULES OF DEBATE AT MEETINGS

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chair of the meeting.
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
- d If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall be considered even if early verbal or written notice is not provided.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to their own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- j Subject to Standing Order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chair of the meeting.

- m The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.
- n Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate on the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.
- o Unless permitted by the chair of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in

 - iv. to give a personal explanation; or
 - v. to exercise a right of reply.
- p During the debate on a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the Standing Order which may have been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting the councillor is concerned by.
- q A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his decision shall be final.

- i. to amend the motion;
 - ii. to proceed to the next business;

 - vi. to refer a motion to a committee or sub-committee for consideration;
 - vii. to exclude the public and press;
 - viii. to adjourn the meeting; or
 - ix. to suspend particular Standing Order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory or legal requirements.
- s Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the chair of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived their right of reply.
- t Excluding motions moved under Standing Order 1(r), the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed 30 minutes without the consent of the chair of the meeting.

2. DISORDERLY CONDUCT AT MEETINGS

- b If person(s) disregard the request of the chair of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chair of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or be excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- c If a resolution made under Standing Order 2(b) is ignored, the chair of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.
